BEAD's November Exhibit to Feature Bloomington Watercolor Society

BEAD will showcase paintings by members of the Bloomington Watercolor Society in a collaborative exhibit featuring over 30 local artists. Works will range from portraiture to landscapes to abstracts and will be on exhibit for the month of November in the City Hall Atrium, which is located in the main entrance of the Showers Building at 401 North Morton Street. The exhibition will be open from November 6th through the 29th, Monday through Friday, 8:00am to 5:00pm.

Formations on Exhibit at City Hall in December

The City of Bloomington and BEAD will showcase Formations, an arashi shibori textile installation by Daren Pitts Redman in the City Hall Atrium from December 1 - December 30, 2009. Arashi shibori is the process of rolling fabric on a pole, binding with string, twisting, scrunching and dyeing to produce patterns which are reminiscent of rain.

Pitts-Redman created the floating textile forms in response to the exhibit space and to reflect the colors in the natural wooded area surrounding her home and studio in Brown County. The opening reception for Formations is Thursday, December 3rd from 6:00pm to 8:00pm. The exhibition will be open for viewing from December 4th to December 30th, 2009, Monday through Friday, 8:00am to 5:00pm. City Hall will be closed on December 25.
